

JUST FOR ME (Kirk Franklin)

[Verse 1]

Just for me

Many doors You've closed just for me

Sometimes You will say no

So I'll be tested in Your fire

To purify my desires

So my blessings won't be just for me

So caught up in myself, I couldn't see

The world did not revolve around me

So storms are in Your will

So I can feel what others feel, their needs

If I could speak honestly

[Chorus]

It don't feel good, but growing never does

It don't seem fair for You to call this love

But if necessary pain is the ingredient for change

Even when life may be bittersweet, it's working

[Verse 2]

Just for me

All the moments I missed that were just for me

Because I chose not to wait patiently

But for every mistake was the same amount of grace

That kept my blessing waiting

Just for me

But trusting Your timing is not easy

And what I want's not always what I need

Somewhere, I forgot, You are God and I am not, I see

If I could speak honestly
